

THE NORTHERN SCHOOL FOR CREATIVITY & ACTIVISM

“Art is travelling without travelling. Art is a language that does not need Western translation.

Art is a mini-scale revolution.”

- The International Congress of Youth Voices

UNION 24

UNION delivers a series of coaching and training programmes for community artists and social activists across the North of England.

In 2024 we will be running a 12-month programme aimed at early- to mid-career artists and activists from across the North.

We are looking for people who have already started working in the sector in some way. People who are at a point where they can reflect on what they have achieved to-date as well as considering how they go forward, indeed what going forward might be!

If that sounds familiar and you are:

- Committed to using creative approaches to achieve social change
- Looking for direction, opportunities and challenges
- Ready to be part of a group; to learn with and get support from

Then apply to the UNION 24 programme

For more details and information on how to apply go to unionarts.org.uk

Deadline for applications:

January 28th 2024

Course starts:

March 22-24th 2024

UNION 24 will include:

- Five intensive weekend workshops during the year; all in different locations with differing themes and objectives
- Individual one-to-one coaching sessions to help define future pathways and identify possible opportunities, mentors, etc
- The opportunity to learn from funded collaborations between participants

You will co-create the programme, reviewing your own achievements and consider the challenges and opportunities going forward.

UNION is coordinated by Heads Together Productions and, with support from the Paul Hamlyn Foundation, we are able to offer this programme for free and provide additional support where needed eg access costs.

“UNION has helped me to figure out who I am, where my work sits and, more importantly, that I am not alone on this journey. It’s given me a clearer focus for my activism”
